This email serves to memorialize our phone conversation of today regarding both of our "good faith" discovery demand letters. We have agreed to extend the deadline for filing motions to compel discovery to Jan. 12th in the event we cannot resolve the outstanding discovery issues. In addition, I will be tendering Defendant Joseph Salazar's Second Supplemental Answers to Plaintiff's Interrogatories no later than Jan. 12th. Finally, I have sent to Mr. Salazar a Verification Statement for his previous interrogatory answers. Please let me know immediately if what I have relayed does not comport with your understanding of today's extension agreement. Thanks and Happy Holidays!

Joe – just tried returning your call and left a message but not positive that it was your extension. I'm around this afternoon. Thanks,
